

You're Invited

CRS UNIVERSITY SALT SUMMIT

SALT = STUDENT AMBASSADOR LEADERS TOGETHER

when

SUNDAY, JULY 24 (AFTERNOON) - TUESDAY, JULY 26 (EVENING)

where

Baltimore, MD | Loyola University Maryland & CRS Headquarters
Washington, DC | Capitol Hill

who

We invite teams of 2-3 individuals per university already engaged with our CRS Student Ambassador program to apply. Ideally, this would include 1 advisor/staff person with 1-2 student leaders who have prior experience with and knowledge of CRS. We prefer that student participants are incoming sophomores and juniors. Universities are invited to apply as a team (rather than as individuals).

NOTE: THIS IS NOT AN INTRODUCTORY TRAINING—FOR THAT, CHECK OUT OUR ONLINE TRAINING OR FALL REGIONAL TRAINING OPTIONS. IF YOUR UNIVERSITY IS NOT ALREADY CONNECTED WITH OUR CRS STUDENT AMBASSADOR PROGRAM, YOU CAN BE! CONTACT DANIELLE.ROBERTS@CRS.ORG IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO START THE CRS STUDENT AMBASSADOR PROGRAM ON YOUR CAMPUS.

cost

CRS and Loyola University Maryland will cover the cost of the CRS Student Ambassador Leadership Summit, including food, accommodations, all sessions, and transportation within Baltimore/DC during the summit. Participants are asked to cover the cost of their transportation to and from Loyola University Maryland.

what

Student leaders and advisors will be equipped to organize and engage their campuses to work for global solidarity through CRS. This will include: community building, connecting with CRS staff & experts, prayer & reflection, skill-building workshops (campus mobilizing, media/communications/advocacy), content-based workshops (human trafficking, refugees/migration, climate change); advocacy, and idea sharing on engaging with CRS programs on campus.
